

ELGIN TURNERS NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 2019

We hosted a great convention, and thank you to everyone that attended it and volunteered for it to make it happen. Elected a new district president and board members, set some policy and had great eats and drinks. An enlightening speech by Ed Colton suggested a leadership conference among societies. Basically society's leaders or representatives get together to discuss what helps get people in their doors and promote their events and day to day operations. Great idea, if anyone is interested in getting together with some other turner societies to represent our club please let me know.

Our own Jen Gonzales is going to begin instructing yoga in the gym and is looking for anyone that might be interested. Tentatively it will be on Saturday Mornings. To kick off the program there will be a Sip and Yoga event with tasty wine and some stretching. Stop in and see Jen on a Thursday or Friday for details.

While we slowed the financial bleeding last year there is much work still to be done. We need new ideas, new events and new members. We formed a marketing director position with the intentions of getting someone to help promote the club, our events and Turnerism in general. If you or any other member you know is interested in this position, please come to the February meeting on the 18th at 7 PM.

A few years ago we moved our monthly meeting times to 7:00 (from 8:00) hoping to get more attendance. Has had mixed results so we are going to try putting it up a notch to 7:30 PM, not as late as 8 but not as early as 7. So beginning March 18th, we will be meeting at 7:30PM.

February and the cold is upon us. Stop down for a $2 domestic bottle and have a Gary's Pizza!! Here's where I plug Beer sausage (3rd Sunday) and Family Breakfast (last Sunday) and of course the Calcutta on the 23rd.

With Turner Greetings,

Dave Williams
