

ELGIN TURNER'S NEWSLETTER

January 2020

With 2019 behind us and 2020 on the horizon, the club could use some more attendance as we face the challenges of the next decade. We had a pretty good year but always have room for improvement, how can you help?

In light of a potential increase in National Per capita increase, we raised our dues by $5 this year(to $80) with no change in coupon books(Five $20 Books per year). Spouses and student children of members are still half with no books.

Our long time friend and Tenant Alfredo (Fred) is retiring and leaves us with a service station to prep for rental and get rented. Hopefully we can get a new tenant that stays as long and is as diligent as Fred has been. If you know anyone interested please contact a board member.

I would like to thank outgoing board members Warren Tejes and Dawn Miranda for their dedicated service to the club. Warren is retiring from the Treasurer Position and we need an honest accounting orientated person to fill those big shoes. If you or anyone you know is interested, please contact us ASAP.

With Turner Greetings,
Dave Williams
